MAZE Design Basel: a new show dedicated to collectible design joins the MAZE constellation.

Following the cancellation of the Design Miami/Basel fair, and since Basel remains an essential crossroads for the international art market, an exclusive group of galleries specializing in collectible design have joined forces to create Design Basel, a new prestige event that joins the MAZE brand of fairs, including Art Gstaad.

The show will be held on Monday June 16 and Tuesday June 17, 2025 in the sumptuous Offene Kirche Elisabethen, ideally located opposite Basel's Kunsthalle.

Each gallery will present a stand highlighting its expertise and selection, offering a rich panorama of the decorative arts, from the 1950^s to contemporary creation.

The group of dealers behind this initiative includes Thomas Fritsch- Artrium (Paris), Galerie Gastou (Paris), Pierre-Marie Giraud (Brussels), Jousse Entreprise (Paris), Ketabi Bourdet (Paris), Kreo (Paris), Laffanour / Galerie Downtown (Paris), Galerie Mitterrand (Paris), Salon 94 (New York) and Thomsen Gallery (New York). The full program will be unveiled at the end of March.
